

JULY 2017 – SCALE BLOG No 5

Dear All,

Just an update, we had a good weekend at Royston, unfortunately both days were very windy, however a few were still flying (only the brave) and of course Alan Parris who we all know is wind proof and water proof! yet another thanks to the Road Farm gang.

We were up to Birmingham (hearts of England) last weekend so more to follow.

Don't forget we have –

Helipad Portsmouth on 23rd July (post code PO17 6AN)

Followed by Southern Helifest (three days) 28th, 29th 30th July (BH21 7BD)

Stonehenge 6th Aug (Kevin Lever)

Midlands – 12th and 13th Aug (Kenny Morton)

Hope to see some of you at these events.

Regards,

John Cop.
